The principles of self-restraint, effort, frugality, and resourcefulness.

克己、克勤、克儉、克難

The monastics at the Jing Si Abode follow a life of self-restraint, diligence, frugality, and resourcefulness. This is the practice of simple life advocated by Master Cheng Yen. They not only make a living for themselves but also offer support for Tzu Chi's global operations to practice the Buddha's teachings.

靜思精舍的生活至今,常住師父克己、克勤、克儉、克難的精神,是來自靜思法脈的樸實家風;不僅要自力更生,還支撐著廣大的如來家業,成為全球慈濟人堅強的後盾。

Those who are content with few desires are capable of practicing the teachings of Pu-Shien Bodhisattva.

是人少欲知足,能修普賢之行。

Those who have faith and follow the Lotus Sutra teachings of the Bodhisattva will have purity of mind, lack desire and gain contentment and joy of practice. Consequently, they have the right character and mindfulness to eventually achieve the merits equal to those of the Pu-Shien Bodhisattva.

For over fifty years, Master Cheng Yen and her nuns have lived a life of subsistence, following an ancient Buddhist monastic tradition of self-reliance called "no work, no meals". They live simply, and produce goods to make a basic living. Their living expenses are strictly separated from donations to Tzu Chi Foundation.

信受奉行法華菩薩法者,其人清心寡欲知足樂道,故能樸質正直守持正念,終必修成普賢菩薩德行。

五十年來,證嚴上人與隨行弟子們堅持佛門自力更生的原則,以耕作勞務及各種手工維持常住簡單的生活。眞正實踐了「一日不做,一日不食」的精神,維持常住的生活費,更與十方大德的捐款清楚劃分開來。

Dharma Master Cheng Yen

Founder of Buddhist Tzu Chi Foundation

Tzu Chi has offices in 56 countries, has built 201 schools in 16 countries, and left the footprints of relief aid in over 94 countries. Volunteers follow in the footsteps of Dharma Master Cheng Yen, from charity, medicine, education, and humanistic culture, to bone marrow donation, international disaster relief, environmental protection, and community volunteerism, walking into the crowd of humanity in the eight directions,

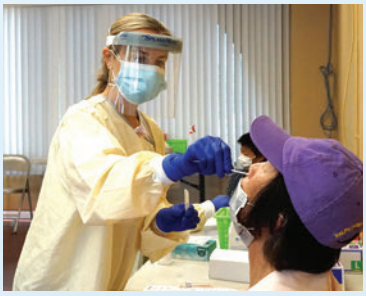
LOVE SAVES

The Buddhist Tzu Chi Foundation is a global non-profit humanitarian organization founded in 1966 by a Buddhist nun named Dharma Master Cheng Yen in Taiwan. Its missions of medicine, charity, education, and humanistic culture has brought relief to 102 countries and counting. In 1989, Tzu Chi USA was established and now has 66 offices across the US. The heart of Tzu Chi is embedded in its name: in Chinese, "tzu" means compassion and "chi," relief.



TZU CHI'S COVID-19 RESPONSES

The COVID-19 pandemic has brought families across the US into poverty, hunger, and desperation. Tzu Chi USA's initial fundraiser, "Flatten the Curve," brought aid to our frontline heroes, essential workers, and many more. Now, our long-term recovery efforts through our "Together While Apart" fundraiser is humanely buffering the needs of our nation's most vulnerable so they may enter their next chapter with support and love.

HOW WE'RE HELPING

1. We're supporting healthcare heroes, essential workers, and more by donating personal protective equipment (PPE) to institutions, groups, and individuals across the country.
2. We're giving charity to those left most vulnerable to the pandemic's socio-economic impacts – like those who are low-income, elderly, undocumented, the homeless, college students, survivors of domestic abuse, and more. This may be through food, supplies, cash relief, and more.

Tzu Chi USA has so far distributed items and PPE including (as of October 16th):

- 2,182,376 surgical masks
- 197,782 N95 respirators
- 77,120 pairs of gloves
- 42,563 protective goggles
- 28,601 face shields
- 26,631 cloth masks
- 21,555 bags of groceries
- 6,348 bottles of disinfectant

and more

We have also provided emergency cash cards that total $291,920 in financial aid to 2,132 separate households across the country.

Our pandemic relief efforts as of Oct. 16 have benefitted 1,382 institutions and have mobilized 8,356 volunteer shifts across the country. With your support, we can do much more to give families hope, and show we are in this together.

新冠肺炎病毒疫情重創美國，許多家庭陷入困境，失業、缺糧、憂懼，慈濟美國在疫情爆發之初，便發起「驚世的疫情・警世的愛」勸募防疫行動，籌措到的個人防疫物資（PPE），動員全美志工，及時送往各地在前線守護生命的醫護、維安警消、和社區急需的人。而在疫情持續蔓延的現在，慈濟美國展開疫情中長期援助計畫「有愛無懼・慈悲相繫」，期待以人道守護，為我們所在的這片土地，和脆弱的家庭，送去愛與關懷，攜手度過疫情暗夜。

2. 持續發放蔬果乾糧食物，以及提供經濟補助。馳援的對象包括：經濟受創和低收入家庭、長者、無證移民、街友、貧困大學生、家暴受害者等。

慈濟美國透過各管道籌個人措防疫物資與食物，截至10月16日已送出：
