The Buddhist Tzu Chi Foundation is a volunteer-based non-governmental organization. It was established in 1966 in Hualien, Taiwan, by Dharma Master Cheng Yen. With the assistance of 30 housewives, who saved the equivalent of 2¢ from their daily grocery budget inside bamboo piggy banks, crucial funds were accumulated to help those in need. The belief that small change can make a big difference is still at the core of Tzu Chi's philosophy today, carried forward through the spirit of the bamboo bank.

As of 2024, Tzu Chi has expanded its footprint of humanitarian aid globally, reaching 133 countries and regions. Tzu Chi provides charitable assistance, medical aid, disaster relief, education services, environmental protection programs, and a bone marrow donor registry while promoting humanistic values and community service.

In the 80s, Stephen Huang, an American businessman, visited Master Cheng Yen to seek her guidance. Their meeting was a fateful one. Witnessing her altruism, strength, and grace in creating an organization that he regarded as effective and impactful as Tzu Chi changed his life. Thus, Stephen became a disciple and vowed to bring the Tzu Chi spirit to the United States. Tzu Chi USA, established in 1989 in Alhambra, CA, became Tzu Chi's first chapter outside of Taiwan.

Today, Tzu Chi USA has 63 offices and service centers nationwide, with volunteers and donors striving to make a difference across communities, serving others unconditionally, and sowing the seeds of love and kindness in America and beyond.
